Threatened Clash Between Germany and Switzerland Over German Scheme

(By Agency Radio to the International News Service.)
Paris, July 10.—A serious clash is threatened between Switzerland and Germany as a result of the proposal of the latter country to erect a series of factories damming the Rhine river, said a dispatch from Bern today.
Big demonstrations were held in Bern demanding the Swiss government to prevent the damming of the river because it would stop free navigation.

IRON SCHEDULE IS EXPECTED TO HOLD

That Fixed by the Government for Pig Iron Not Expected to Be Revised for Third Quarter.

Birmingham, Ala., July 10.—The schedule of prices fixed by the government for pig iron is not expected to be revised for the third quarter of the year, in response to demands of southern producers, who claim that profits have been narrowed greatly by increases in various directions.
This is the opinion of a prominent iron man, who says that he bases his conclusions on reports from Washington. There may be some modification of the freight rates on raw material or the intra-district transportation, but the schedule of prices announced July 1 for the three months will probably stick so far as pig iron is concerned.

Briefs are now being considered by officials of the interstate commerce commission on freight matters, the independent iron manufacturers having sent statements in.

There is an inclination towards government supervision of labor at coal mines throughout Alabama, each employee to be requested to give full effort in the work and those lagging to be called to task by the government, either fight or work to be the motto.
Announcements will probably be made before the end of the week of some big development in the district. George Gordon Crawford, president of the Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad company, has been back from his eastern trip for three or four days, but no formal statement emanates from his office as yet. J. W. McQueen, president of the Sloss-Sheffield Steel and Iron company, will be back from his two weeks' stay in the east in the next twenty-four hours and it is expected that he will have some kind of statement to make.

SILENT TRIBUTE PAID MAJ. JOHN P. MITCHELL

(International News Service.)

John Purroy Mitchell, ex-mayor of New York, who was killed in an airplane accident near Lake Charles, La., this afternoon when his body will be borne from the home of his mother to the city hall, where it will lie in state until tomorrow morning, when the funeral will be held.
Mayor Hylan will receive the body of the dead aviator and it will be placed in the rotunda of the city hall, where the public will have an opportunity to pay its respects to the ex-mayor.

A guard of honor, composed of soldiers from the regular army and a detail of policemen and firemen, will watch the body during the night. Because of the nature of the accident the aviator met with, the coffin will not be unsealed as it lies in state.

WILL TAKE MORGAN BROTHERS WITH DETAIL OF SOLDIERS

LOOK AT CHILD'S TONGUE IF SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH

Hurry, Mother! Remove poisons from little stomach, liver, bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once if bilious or constipated.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomach ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently move out of the little bowels without gripping, and you have a well, playful child again.
You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative"; they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.
Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—(Adv.)

uials from Camp Sheridan to scour the woods of Butler county, where Bill, Tom and John Morgan are supposed to be in hiding. Reports have been received by the marshal that the Morgan brothers had sent a deft to the Greenville officers to the effect that they were barricaded and ready to resist arrest.
United States Marshal Cain, on receiving reports that the men intended to barricade themselves in the woods and fight further attempts to arrest them, wired to the war department for authority to carry a detail of troops to the scene. This authority was received this morning and the soldiers and marshal left Montgomery in two big army trucks well fortified with army rifles and an abundance of ammunition.

GOV. RYE BITTERLY ARRAIGNS SHIELDS

Claims Threats From Men He Had Put Out of Illegal Business.

(Special to The News.)
Knoxville, July 10.—In bitter arraignment of Senator Shields, newspapers of the state and citizens of Memphis, Gov. Tom C. Rye launched his campaign here when he addressed a large audience Tuesday night.
"I have been threatened by men whom I have put out of business because their trades were illegal," he said. "These men have said they would destroy me. The newspapers from one end of the state to the other have notified me of my defeat because the Crump gang at Memphis has indicted Senator Shields for re-election."
He charged that "friends of the senior senator seem to think the office belongs to him by divine right."
He claimed that Senator Shields has entered into "this unholy alliance with Maj. Stahlman, of Nashville, because the latter owns a newspaper."

Special agents of the company are investigating reports that the bolts were purposely placed on the track.

DEPUTY STROEBEL CONDEMNS PEACE EFFORTS OF GERMANS

Washington, July 10.—An official dispatch from Switzerland says the independent socialist deputy Stroebel, in a violent speech in the Prussian landtag recently, condemned the German government for its efforts to secure a peace by force. He warned the German people that unless they rid themselves of their government and "send their politicians of war and rapine to the devil," America's soldiers will prove too strong a force to combat.

WHERE?

The German drive on the western front is due to be resumed any day now. Hindenburg has let his troops loaf long enough. Dispatches from the front indicate that the drive will come in one of the three places indicated on the map—before Amiens, at Chateau-Thierry or north of Chalons-sur-Marne. On all three fronts American troops are ready for the Huns.

Big Leagues May Fight Over Scott Perry Affair

(International News Service.)
New York, July 10.—War clouds are lowering on the baseball horizon today.

Relations between the National and American leagues which have been strained ever since the National commission handed down its decision in the case of Pitcher Scott Perry, of the Athletics, have reached the breaking point. Unless concessions are forthcoming from one side or the other there is trouble in sight.
President John K. Tener's announcement that he will no longer serve as a member of the National commission unless the ruling of that body in the Perry case is obeyed, and Perry turned over to the Boston Nationals, has brought the issues between the two leagues to a point where a show-down must be had.

Baseball men here who are in close touch with the national pastime were unwilling to venture opinions regarding the outcome today. There is a feeling, however, that baseball cannot afford to add to its many troubles at this time, and that disinterested club owners in both major leagues will use their influence to bring about a settlement.

If baseball was enjoying prosperity and could look ahead to an unclouded future, such as it would surely have, were peace to be declared, a break in the National commission would probably be welcomed by the league leaders. But the cooler heads see the folly of such a thing now.

Baseball today is a supplicant for leniency from government officials regarding the application of the "work or fight" order of Gen. Crowder. The men behind the game hope that official eyes will look upon it as an essential, inasmuch as it is the national pastime. Therefore, an internal war would do great harm.

In refusing to abide by the Perry decision the American league broke the national agreement, baseball men admit. And this action of the club in taking the case Philadelphia to the civil courts stirred smoldering fires in both leagues.

CITIES MAY CO-OPERATE IN BUILDING UTILITIES

Louisiana Legislature Passes a Bill Concerning Such Power for Interstate System.
Baton Rouge, La., July 10.—The lower house of the Louisiana legislature last night passed a bill empowering municipalities of the state to combine and co-operate with each other in the ownership, construction and operation of electric interurban railways and hydroelectric plants. The announced purpose of the bill, which already has passed the senate and now goes to the governor for signature, is to enable municipalities of the state to build and develop an electric interurban railway system that will ultimately furnish cheap and rapid transportation between the different cities and towns.
The bill is a copy of the act passed by the Mississippi legislature last March, and it now will become possible, according to the supporters of the bill, to construct and operate an interstate interurban system.

COL. W. L. PEEL TENDERS RESIGNATION TO RED CROSS

Atlanta, July 10.—Col. W. L. Peel has tendered his resignation as manager of the southern division of the Red Cross. His retirement to become effective no later than Sept. 1, it was announced here yesterday. Col. Peel gave as the reason for his action the fact that the duties connected with the work had grown to such proportions that he did not believe he should undertake to carry it on.

The Joy of Living.
To enjoy life we must have good health. No one can reasonably hope to get much real pleasure out of life when his bowels are clogged a good share of the time and the poisons that should be expelled are absorbed into the system, producing headache and indigestion. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets will move the bowels, strengthen the digestion and give you a chance to realize the real joy of living. Try it.—(Adv.)

GERMAN DISCIPLINE SERIOUSLY SHAKEN

Breakdown in Iron System Indicated in Reports Regarding Second Army.

(Associated Press.)
London, July 10.—Indications of a breakdown in discipline in the second German army are found in two orders issued by Gen. Von Der Marwitz, which have fallen into British hands, says the correspondent of the Times at British headquarters in France. In the orders Von Der Marwitz makes this complaint:
"Discipline, which is the keystone of our army, is seriously shaken. Cases of soldiers refusing to obey orders are increasing to an alarming extent."

LIEUT. PUTNAM NOW IS LEADING AMERICAN ACE

(Associated Press.)
Paris, July 10.—Lieut. David E. Putnam, of Brookline, Mass., has formally become the leading American ace in succession to Lieut. Frank Baylies, who has been missing since June 17. Putnam's tenth victory on June 30, now has been verified officially.
In the month of June Putnam brought down seven German machines, equalling the monthly records made by the late Capt. Guynemer.

The German drive on the western front is due to be resumed any day now. Hindenburg has let his troops loaf long enough. Dispatches from the front indicate that the drive will come in one of the three places indicated on the map—before Amiens, at Chateau-Thierry or north of Chalons-sur-Marne. On all three fronts American troops are ready for the Huns.

REFIN REPORTS STRONG ALLIED ATTACKS FAILED

(Associated Press.)
Berlin (Via London), July 9.—The official communication from headquarters today says:
"South of La Bassee canal repeated partial attacks were repulsed and on the north bank of the Somme strong enemy attacks broke down. On this sector the artillery duel continued lively and in the evening increased intermittently to great violence."
"West of Arras local attacks were launched by the enemy this morning after violent artillery preparation. At the forest of Villers-Cotterets partial attacks by the French were repulsed in our fighting zone."

"Eighteen enemy airplanes were shot down yesterday."

TENNESSEANS HEAR BIG GUNS BOOMING

Can See Flashes on Forty-Mile Front—Col. Cary F. Spence Writes Back to His Home.

(Special to The News.)
Knoxville, July 10.—Booming of the big guns can be heard by the Tennessee troops in France and the flashes seen at night, according to a letter received from Col. Cary F. Spence, commanding the 117th infantry, by Mrs. Spence. Col. Spence also states that the men of the former Third Tennessee infantry are among the best Americans in France. The 117th landed early overseas in May and according to last reports, was not far from the first line trenches.

"We have been traveling steady since we left America," writes Col. Spence. "We find it very much cooler here than in the states. We can hear the big guns all day and hear them pounding all night. We can see the flashes of the guns long before we hear their reports. We can see the firing going on on about a forty-mile front. The hoche machines were going over all last night, and search lights all along our country were being used freely on them and anti-aircraft guns were firing on them. Also the Royal squadron was fighting with them. It was too dark to see the results. One hoche machine was brought down yesterday afternoon just back of our camp and they went on a raid yesterday and brought down eight machines and in the afternoon five more. They returned without the loss of a machine, though one of their engines was shot up so badly that the aviator was compelled to land in our lines."

"We find that our troops are as well trained as any troops we have seen over here. We have not yet been in the first lines, but from what I have seen of the reserves, I do not hesitate to say that they have nothing on the American troops."
"A major-general, not of our army, who inspected us yesterday, told me that he has never seen a finer body of men and that discipline is fine. The men all seem anxious to get into the 'big show,' as they call it over here."

"Gen. Pershing sent word yesterday that he would inspect this regiment, and we were all ready for him and were held in readiness most of the day. However, owing to automobile trouble, he did not get here."

"Water is very scarce and we get only about a gallon a day to the man, which has to be hauled. I wrote you the other day in reference to the concert that we gave in one of the largest cities that we passed through on one Sunday. Over 6,000 people heard our band, and they were all very much delighted. There were soldiers there of eleven different armies at this concert. It was certainly a very inspiring sight to see all the different uniforms. In addition to this there were many different uniforms of the service they were in."

"The French people are delighted to see the American soldiers and are trying to do everything they can for them. We are on a regular ration, and if you have not got a ticket, you cannot get anything to eat. My sergeant-major says there are a lot of times when you cannot get anything to eat even with a ticket. I have talked to many of the men the last two days in reference to how they feel about being over here, and the general opinion is that the closer they get to the front the less dreadful it is from the way they saw it in the states."

"Man power is what they need and needed badly over here. We are now being trained in conjunction with the division we are with. They have only 1,500 men left. In passing through England I heard one of the citizens make the remark when he saw our men marching off the ships that it was certainly a sight to see these men coming over, and that they cannot get too many over to suit him."

"The men are billeted in small towns and the officers are with them in the houses. In most cases where it is practicable the men are also housed. The French peasant, as far as I am able to see, gets along with his work just the same as if there were no war. In many cases when there is not a big drive on, hundreds of the French soldiers are allowed to go home and help work on the farm. Every piece of land is, therefore, highly cultivated, and at this time of the year is beautiful."

In another letter the commander of the Tennessee troops had just returned from a commanding officers' school. He writes:
"I never saw more beautiful grounds. Night before last the Germans used a 14-inch gun, shot in a town three miles from us, doing considerable damage. They were fired about twenty miles away. We found the ruins of the shells."

"Many of the officers have been sent up to the front line trenches and just returned. They tell of some wonderful things that have happened to them. One of the sergeants had a man killed by his side when handing him a cup of coffee."

In my judgment, if this war is to be won, Uncle Sam has got to do it. I can't see it any other way. My men are in the spirit and I am proud of them."

"Field Marshal Haig and the Prince of Teck, the queen's brother, who is a general in the British army, inspected the Tennessee troops and were well pleased with them."

"Brig.-Gen. L. D. Tyson, of Knoxville, has been up in the front line trenches for four days."
